Most of the rulings in this book are taken from Nur ul Idaah.

It contains all the rulings from Purity to Hajj.

Each chapter is divided into 6 parts

The number of obligatory actions

The number of compulsory actions

The number of Sunnat actions

The number of desirable actions

The number of nullifiers

The number of undesirable actions

Each item in every chapter is numbered

It is beneficial for children. They should be made to count and learn all the rulings

It is beneficial for Imams, they should count and explain the rulings to the people

It is beneficial for those in Jama’at. They can learn the etiquettes of Gasht etc.
It is beneficial for the Hujjaaj, they can learn the obligatory and Sunnat actions of Haj and Umrah

The book is very easy

It can be easily remembered

It contains the common day rulings

All unnecessary rulings have been taken out

Good guide book for prisoners.

Dedication

Hadhrat Maulana Ilyas Desai

Khatib at Masjid Ma’had ush Shuhadaa’, Preston, England

There are very few people in the world that showed great love to me and showered the rain of affection and liking that cannot be forgotten throughout life. One of these people is Hadhrat Maulana Ilyas Desai. This Allaah conscious scholar is the brother in law and cousin of Hadhrat Maulana Shu’ayb Desai. Like Hadhrat Maulana Shu’ayb he also showers the rain of goodness upon the poor and destitute of Jhar Khand. There is great effort done to send Zakaat and charity to this locality. He keeps the envelopes throughout the year. May Allaah grant him great recompense for this. Aameen, O Rabb of the worlds.

Hadhrat has concern day and night for the youth. He desires that every youngster should become religious and they should perform Salaat. Therefore he has a number of weekly programs and lectures until one in the morning. In Ramadhaan he performs Tahajjud and optional Salaat throughout the night. More than a hundred youth participate with him. In this time when the youth are lost, this effort of Hadhrat is worthy of great appreciation.

When this lowly one was busy writing the commentary of Hidaayah, then Hadhrat Maulana Ilyas Saaheb repeatedly requested that such a Fiqh book should be arranged for the younger children that,

Would be very easy

The children can memorise it

The Imams can at one glance look at the number of Sunnat actions in Wudhu’ or how many compulsory actions there are in Salaat. They should count it on their fingers and explain it to those attending Salaat

The youngsters going out in Jama’at can easily learn the obligatory actions, compulsory actions and Sunnat actions of Wudhu’, Salaat and Fasting
The book is very small but it encompasses the rulings until Hajj so that the Hujjaaj can benefit from it

Hadrat continually requested for a valuable and easy book and on account of being occupied I continuously promised. In fulfilment of this promise, this book was prepared and we take the honour of dedicating it to Hadrat. Du’aa’ is made that upon his request Allaah blesses it with great acceptance and make it a means of great reward for them both.

Wudhu

The 4 obligatory actions of Wudhu:

It is obligatory to wash the face

It is obligatory to wash the arms including the elbows

It is obligatory to wash the feet including the ankles

It is obligatory to make Masah of a quarter of the head

[Madhmdaha refers to putting water in the mouth and gargling. Istinshaq refers to putting water into the nose.]

The 18 Sunnat acts in Wudhu:

The meaning of Sunnat is that it is better (rewarding to do, habitually to leave is sinful) to do it and there is no sin in leaving it out. There are no compulsory actions in Wudhu.

It is Sunnat to wash both hands up to the wrists

It is Sunnat to recite ‘Bismillaah’ in the beginning

It is Sunnat to use the Miswaak. If one does not have a Miswaak, then one can rub the teeth using ones finger

It is Sunnat to gargle thrice
It is Sunnat to put water into the nose thrice

If one is not fasting, then it is Sunnat to gargle and rinse the nose properly

It is Sunnat to take a handful of water and pass the wet fingers through a thick beard beginning from the bottom

It is Sunnat to make Khilaal of all the fingers

It is Sunnat to wash each limb thrice

It is Sunnat to make Masah of the entire head once

It is Sunnat to make Masah of the ears using the water of the head

It is Sunnat to rub the body

It is Sunnat to wash one limb after the other in a continuous motion

It is Sunnat to make the intention

It is Sunnat to perform Wudhu’ in sequence

It is Sunnat to begin from the right and from the fingertips

It is Sunnat to begin Masah from the front of the head

It is Sunnat to make Masah of the nape
The 14 desirable actions of Wudhu:

Desirable means that these actions do not have the status of Sunnat, but are desirable. They hold the status of etiquette. There will be increase in reward if one does them and there is no problem if they are not done.

It is desirable to sit on a high place

It is desirable to sit facing the Qiblah

It is desirable not to take help from another without necessity

It is desirable not to speak worldly things

It is desirable to make the intention in the heart as well as verbally

It is desirable to recite the narrated Du’aa’s

It is desirable to recite ‘Bismillaah’ and the Du’aa’ when washing every limb

It is desirable to place the little finger into the holes of the ears

It is desirable to shake/move a ring that is loose, even if water by itself reaches
It is desirable to put water into the mouth and into the nose using the right hand

It is desirable to clean the nose using the left hand

It is desirable to perform Wudhu’ before the time if there is no excuse

It is sunnat to recite the Kalimah of Testimony after Wudhu’

It is sunnat to stand and drink the left over water of Wudhu’ and to recite the Du’aa’ (الله اجعلني من التوابين واجعلني من المتطهرين)

The 6 undesirable actions of Wudhu:

It is undesirable to use more water than necessary

It is undesirable to use water sparing

It is undesirable to splash water onto the face

It is undesirable to speak of worldly matters during Wudhu’

It is undesirable to take help from others without an excuse

It is undesirable to perform Masah thrice – each time with new water
The Wudhu breaks on account of 12 things:

The Wudhu’ breaks if something comes out from the front or back private parts.

Wudhu’ breaks when a woman gives birth, even if no blood comes out.

Wudhu’ breaks when flowing impurity comes out from any part of the body.

If a drop of blood comes out when giving an injection the Wudhu’ breaks.

The Wudhu’ breaks when vomiting a mouthful of food or water.

Wudhu’ will break if blood is more than or equal to the saliva.

Wudhu’ will break if one sleeps while the back passage is not fixed firmly on the ground.

The Wudhu’ will break if the back passage lifts off the ground while sleeping.

Wudhu’ breaks if a person falls unconscious.
Wudhu’ breaks if a person goes mad

Wudhu’ breaks when a person becomes drunk

Wudhu’ breaks by laughing aloud in a Salaat that has Ruku’ and Sajdah in it

Wudhu’ will break if a male rubs his private part on the private part of a woman while there is no cloth in between with passion

The Wudhu does not break by 14 things:

Blood became apparent on the body and did not flow. The Wudhu’ will not break

A person took out blood for a sugar test and did not flow. The Wudhu’ will not break

A little blood became apparent by scratching and it did not flow. The Wudhu’ will not break

A little blood became apparent on the haemorrhoids and it did not flow. The Wudhu’ will not break

A little blood became apparent on a wound that did not flow. The Wudhu’ will not break

By the flesh cutting cut and falling off without any blood flowing then the Wudhu’ is not broken
The Wudhu’ will not break by worms coming out of a wound, the ears and nose

A male’s Wudhu’ does not break if he touches his private parts

The Wudhu’ does not break by touching a woman

The Wudhu’ does not break by vomiting less than a mouthful

The Wudhu’ does not break if one vomits a mouthful of phlegm, even if be mouth-full

The Wudhu’ does not break if a sleeping person shook but his back passage did not lift off the ground

The Wudhu’ does not break if a person sleeps with his back passage fixed on the ground

The Wudhu’ will not break if a person sleeps in the condition of Qiyaam, Ruku’, Sajdah and Qa’dah

[If so much blood comes out that flows on the body, the Wudhu’ will break, not if less than this came out]

The Chapter on Ghusl (Bath)

Ghusl becomes obligatory by 6 things:
Ghusl becomes obligatory if one experiences a wet dream

If a male places his private part into the front or back passage of a woman such that the head of his private part goes in, then Ghusl becomes obligatory whether he ejaculates or not

If a person has intercourse with a dead person or animal until he ejaculates, Ghusl will become obligatory upon him

After waking up, a person had conviction that he had ejaculated, then Ghusl will become obligatory

Ghusl becomes obligatory when menstruation finishes

Ghusl becomes obligatory when post birth bleeding stops

Ghusl does not become obligatory by 7 things:

Ghusl does not become obligatory if Madhi comes out

Ghusl does not become obligatory if Wadi comes out

A person though he had a wet dream but there is no liquid, so Ghusl will not be obligatory

Ghusl does not become obligatory if a person administered medicine through the back passage
Ghusl does not become obligatory by putting the finger into the front or back private parts

A person had intercourse with an animal or dead person, as long as he does not ejaculate, Ghusl will not become obligatory

A male rubbed his private part on top of the female private part but did not ejaculate, Ghusl will not become obligatory

[A thin liquid comes out of the male private part when it becomes erect, this is called Madhi. Wadi is a thin liquid that comes out after urinating. Wet dream is when Mani (sperm) comes out without having intercourse. Huqnah refers to enema – administering medication through the back passage. Inzaal refers to ejaculation of sperm. Haydh is the monthly menstrual blood flow of a woman. Nifaas is post birth blood]

6 things are obligatory in Ghusl:

It is obligatory to gargle

It is Sunnat to wash the private parts

It is then Sunnat to perform Wudhu’ like is done for Salaat

It is Sunnat to pour water over the body thrice

It is Sunnat to pour water first over the head

It is then Sunnat to pour water over the right shoulder

It is then Sunnat to pour water over the left shoulder

It is Sunnat to rub the body
It is Sunnat to wash in a continuous motion-wash one part immediately after the other

Ghusl is Sunnat for 4 things:

Ghusl is Sunnat for Jumu’ah Salaat

Ghusl is Sunnat for the Salaat of the two Eids

Ghusl is Sunnat for Ihraam

Ghusl is Sunnat for the Hujjaaj in Arafaat after Zawaal

Tayammum

There are 3 obligatory actions in Tayammum:

It is obligatory to make the intention in Tayammum

To strike the ground twice, to wipe the entire face after the first

To wipe the arms including the elbows after striking the ground the second time

There are 6 conditions for Tayammum to be correct:

If these 6 conditions are found, the Tayammum will be correct, otherwise not
There should be an excuse for Tayammum to be correct, like being far from water

Tayammum should be done on pure item that is of the species of the earth like sand, clay, bricks

All the places should be covered by the Masah

The entire hand or most of the hand should be used to make Masah of the hands and face

The nullifiers of Tayammum should not be present when making Tayammum like menstruation and post birth bleeding

There should not be anything that stops Masah on the hands and face like fat etc. Tayammum will then be correct

There are 7 Sunnat acts in Tayammum:

It is Sunnat to recite Bismillaah in the beginning

It is Sunnat to do the Tayammum in sequence

It is Sunnat to do it continuously

It is Sunnat to begin from the fingers after striking the hands on the ground

It is Sunnat to dust off the hands
It is Sunnat to keep the ring loose

3 things are Haraam if one does not have Wudhu:
It is Haraam to perform Salaat
It is Haraam to perform Tawaaf
It is Haraam to touch the Qur’aan without a covering

SALAAT

If 3 conditions are found, Salaat becomes obligatory:

A person should be a Muslim
A person should be mature
A person should be sane, not mad

The 5 times of Salaat:

Fajr...From true dawn until sunrise
Zuhr...From Zawaal-when the sun is at its highest point-until the shadow of everything becomes twice its size
Asr...From the time that the shadow of everything is twice its size until sunset
Maghrib...From sunset until the whiteness on the horizon goes away
Esha...From after the whiteness in the sky goes away until true dawn
The undesirable times are 3

From sunrise until it rises to a considerable height

From the time the sun reaches its zenith until it moves (towards the west)

From the time that the sun changes colour until sunset

There are 6 obligatory actions before Salaat:

The body should be pure from Hadath (requiring Ghusl or Wudhu’) and impurity

The place of Salaat should be pure

The private areas should be covered

The clothing should be pure

The person should make the intention

A person should face the Qiblah

There are 7 obligatory actions in Salaat:

If one of the obligatory actions are not done, the Salaat will not be valid

It is obligatory to say Takbeer e Tahreema

The Imam should begin the Salaah when ‘Qad Qaamat is Salaah’ is called out or after it.

[The meaning of standing when ‘Hayya alal Falaah’ is called out is that a person should not delay, there is no problem in standing before that]

There are 13 conditions so that it is correct to follow the Imam:
If these conditions are found, it will be correct to follow the Imam, otherwise not

The follower should make the intention for following the Imam at the time of Tahreema

The heels of the Imam should be ahead of the follower

The Imam should not be performing a Salaat of a lower status than that of the Muqtadi

The Imam and follower should be performing the same obligatory Salaat

There should not be a row of women between the Imam and the follower

There should not be a small river/stream in which a small ship can sail

There should not be a road in between in which a car can pass

There should not be such a wall in between on account of which a person will be confused about the movements of the Imam

The Imam should not be mounted and the Muqtadi be on the ground

The conveyance of the Muqtadi should not be separate from the conveyance of the Imam
The ship of the Imam and Muqtadi should not be separate

If the follower has conviction that the Salaat of the Imam is nullified then it will not be correct to follow him

In a Salaat of 4 Rak’ats that is Qadhaa’, a Muqeem should not lead a traveller

18 things cause congregation to be missed:

There is severe rain due to which it is difficult to go

Severe cold

Fear

Intense darkness

Imprisonment

Being blind

Paralysis

If ones hands and feet are cut off

Sickness

A sitting person cannot walk

Mud on the road
Crippled

Advanced age

There is fear of the rulings of Deen being left out and no hope of getting it again

A person has severe hunger and food is present

Preparation for journey

Looking after the sick

Severe winds at night

If there are winds during the day, the ruling of participating in the congregation will not fall off

The principle regarding nullification of Salaat:

The Salaat will become nullified if such a sound comes out on account of happiness or sadness that becomes a sentence spoken by people

If a person speaks the talk of man, the Salaat will become nullified

‘Amal e Katheer, that work done with both hands and someone from far feels that this person is not performing Salaat. Salaat will be nullified by this
By eating or drinking something from outside the Salaat will be nullified

If the entire chest turns away from the Qibla, the Salaat will be nullified

If the Wudhu’ breaks in Salaat, the Salaat will be nullified-wilfully breaking the wudhu

The Hadith for the above mentioned principles is,

عن زيد بن ارقم قال كنا نتكلم في الصلوة، يكلم الرجل صاحبه وهو إلى جنبه في الصلوة حتى نزلت (وقوموا لله قاتنين) سورة البقرة فامرنا بالسكت ونهينا عن الكلام.

مسلم باب تحريم الكلام في الصلوة ونسخ ما كان من اباحته ص ۲۱۹ أبو داؤد باب النهي عن الكلام في الصلوة ص ۱۴۴ ترمذي باب في نسخ الكلام في الصلوة ۹۲

From this Hadith we learn that it is not permissible to speak during Salaat

Even if a person answers Salaam given by someone, his Salaat will break. The following Hadith is proof,

عن معاوية بن حكم السلمي قال بنيا انا اصلى مع رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم اذ عطش رجل من القوم فقلت يرحمك الله فرماني القوم بابصارهم فقلت وانكل أمياء! ما شانكم? تظرون الى فجعلوا يضربون يابدهم على افخاذهم فلما رأيتهم يصومون لکنی سكت فلما صلى رسول الله صلى الله
From this Hadith we learn that the speech of people has no place in Salaat. From this we learn that even speaking forgetfully will nullify the Salaat.

Eating will nullify the Salaat. The statement of a Tabi’i is proof

In this statement of the Tabi’i it is stated that if a person eats or drinks in Salaat, the Salaat will be nullified and it will have to be repeated.

Salaat is nullified by 38 things:

Salaat is nullified by ‘Amal e Katheer

Salaat is nullified by talking

Salaat is nullified by making Du’aa’ in words similar to those of man because it is the speech of man

Making Salaam with the intention of Salaam, even if it be forgetfully, it will nullify Salaat
Salaat will be nullified by verbal reply to Salaam or by handshake

Salaat will be nullified if the chest turns away from the Qibla

By eating something from out of the mouth, even if it be little

Salaat will be nullified if a person eats something in between the teeth equal to a lentil seed

Salaat will be nullified by drinking

Salaat will be nullified by coughing without reason through which it becomes a sentence

Salaat will be nullified by saying ‘Uff, Uff’ through which it becomes a sentence

Salaat will be nullified by crying with a sound through which a sentence is made

Salaat will be nullified by saying ‘Aah, Aah’ through which a sentence is made

If a person cries out of pain or difficulty and it becomes a sentence. [If a person cries for Jannah or out of fear for Jahannam, then the Salaat will not be nullified]

The Salaat will be nullified if a person says ‘Yarhamukallaah’ to one that has sneezed
The Salaat will be nullified by giving reply to someone using a verse.

Salaat will be nullified by giving reply to someone using Du’aa’, this is the speech of man.

Salaat will be nullified if the time of Masah on the socks expires.

If the leather socks (kuff) come off, the Wudhu’ will break therefore causing the Salaat to be nullified.

A person who made Taymmum found water. The Wudhu’ will break thereby causing the Salaat to be nullified.

A person who indicates for Ruku’ and Sajdah became well, so he got the ability to do the original command. In this case the Salaat will be nullified.

The sun rose while performing Fajr. The Salaat will break due to the undesirable time coming in.

The time of Zawaal came in during the Salaat of Eid. The Salaat will break due to the time ending.

The time for Asr entered during Jumu’ah Salaat. The Salaat will break due to the time ending.
A wound got healed during Salaat and on account of this the plaster came off and the person got the ability to do the original action.

The excuse of a Ma’zoor (excused) goes away, he got the ability to do the original action so the Salaat will be nullified.

A person intentionally broke his Wudhu’ so the Salaat will be nullified. [Principle: an excused person gains ability during Salaat, e.g. un unlettered person learns a verse, a naked person gets clothes and a person who performs Salaat with indication gets the ability to perform Ruku’ and Sajdah, so the Salaat will be nullified]

To go for water that is far away leaving water that is nearby will nullify Salaat when wudhu breaks

The Wudhu’ of a person broke due to a wet dream in Salaat, so the Salaat will be nullified

A woman and man were performing the same Salaat together and there is no veil in between

A person had the thought that his Wudhu’ broke and turned completely away from the Qibla so his Salaat will be nullified

If he turned completely away from the Qibla on account of the thought that the period of Masah expired
By correcting an Imam besides one’s own Imam. This will make it the speech of man and nullify the Salaat

Without learning, a person looks into the Qur’aan and recites. The Salaat will be nullified

The private areas were open. In this condition a person performed one posture. The Salaat will be nullified when the duration of one rukun passes by

There is minor impurity on a quarter of a limb. If a person performed one posture in this condition the Salaat will be nullified and more than dirham size of major impurity

A person performed a posture before the Imam and the Imam did not join the person in that posture, the Salaat will be nullified because he performed a posture without the Imam.

A person performed a posture while sleeping and did not repeat it, so the Salaat will be nullified.

There are 7 rulings regarding the mobile phone

During Salaat a person should keep his mobile on silent

During Salaat or even out of Salaat, no music tone should be allowed to sound
There is disrespect in keeping a tone of a verse. Therefore a person should keep a plain tone

If the phone rings in the case of forgetting, then he should off it using one hand

By using both hands, ‘Amal e Katheer will be done on account of which Salaat will be nullified.

In Salaat, if a person says a number aloud the Salaat will be nullified

If he said it in his heart, the Salaat will not be nullified but it is undesirable to do so

There are 57 undesirable actions in Salaat:

The Salaat is not nullified if something undesirable is done nor does Sajdah Sahwa become necessary. Then too, it is not good to do it. The reward will lessen.

It is undesirable to intentionally leave out a compulsory or Sunnat action

It is undesirable to play with the body or clothes

In order to make Sajdah, it is undesirable to move the pebbles more than once

It is undesirable to specify a single Surah to be read and no other

It is undesirable not to place a Sutra (barrier) in such a place where one thinks that people will pass by there

The emphasized Sunnat Salaat are 12:

2 Rak’ats before Fajr

4 Rak’ats before Zuhr
2 Rak’ats after Zuhr
2 Rak’ats after Maghrib
2 Rak’ats after Esha

The total is 12 Rak’ats

The important rulings of Witr are 6

Witr Salaat is compulsory

Witr comprises of 3 Rak’ats with one Salaam

The time of Witr is from the time of Esha until true dawn-the sequence between Esha and Witr is wajib

In the third Rak’at, after a Surah is joined, the hands should be raised for Takbeer before the Duaa-e-Qunoot

It is necessary to recite the Du’aa’ of Qunoot in the third Rak’at

If a person forgot to perform Witr, he will have to make Qadhaa’ of it

This is the Du’aa’ of Qunoot,

اللهم إنا نستعينك ونستغفرك ونؤمن بك ونتوكل عليك ونشي عليك الخير ونشكرك ولا نكفرك ونخلع ونترك من يفجرك اللهم إياك نعبد ولك نصل ونسجد وإليك نسعي ونحذف ونرجوا رحمتك ونخشى عذابك إن عذابك بالكافر

The rulings pertaining to a traveller are 12

A person becomes a traveller (Musaaafir) when 48 Shar’i miles are travelled

On journey, four Rak’at Salaat becomes two Rak’at

The Qadhaa’ of a Salaat on journey is performed as 2 Rak’ats if one is at home

The Qadhaa’ of a Salaat missed at home performed on journey will be 4 Rak’ats

A person should perform Salaat in the train, plane etc.

In obligatory Salaat, standing, Ruku and Sajdah are obligatory. A person should definitely do them if one has the ability to do so

It is necessary to do all of these even though the space is little

If a person sits and performs the Sunnat and Nafl, then it will be permissible

If there is no conviction that the place is impure, then it will be taken to be pure and Salaat is permissible on it
If the land is impure, then clothing or paper should be spread out and it will be permissible to perform Salaat on it.

A person should learn the Qibla direction from people or from signs.

If there is no way of coming to know of the Qibla, then a person should think and whichever direction he has conviction of, he should perform Salaat in that direction. It will be valid.

A person will become a traveller by covering 48 Shar’i miles and 54, 54 English miles.

A person becomes a traveller by traversing 48 Shar’i miles and he will have to make Qasr.

The English equivalent is 54, 54 miles.

The English mile is 1760 yards (Gaz).

A Shar’i mile is 2000 yards.

The English mile is 1.13636 shorter than the Shar’i mile.

If 1.1363 is multiplied by 48, you get 54, 54 English miles.

A person will become a traveller upon 48 Shar’i miles = 87, 78 kilometres.
If a person travels 87, 78 kilometres he becomes a traveller

This is because a kilometre is 1093, 61 yards

A kilometre is 1, 828 shorter than a Shar’i mile

If 1, 828 is multiplied by 48, it equals 87, 78 kilometres

Jumu’ah

There are 7 things that will make Jumu’ah obligatory:

To be a male

To be free

A person should be in a city or in the boundary

He should be healthy

The rulings of Eid are 11:

The Salaat of Eid is compulsory

The Eid Salaat is 2 Rak’ats

There are 6 extra Takbeers in Eid Salaat

The time for Eid Salaat is from sunrise until Zawaal

The 1st of Shawwaal is Eid ul Fitr

On the 10th of Dhul Hijjah is the Salaat of Baqra Eid-Eid ul Adhaa

The wajib conditions for Eid Salaat are the same as those that make Jumu’ah compulsory

It is compulsory upon the one who has Nisaab to make Qurbaani

7 shares can be made in a large animal

A goat is only sufficient on behalf of one person
Consideration is given to the place in which the animal is regarding time

14 things are desirable in Eid:

Eating an odd number of dates before Eid Salaat

To bath-only mustahab on day of Eid ul Fitr

To make Miswaak

To apply perfume

To wear good clothing

If Sadaqatul Fitr is compulsory, it should be given out before the Salaat

To make joy and happiness apparent

To give more Sadaqah according to ones means

Tabkeer, i.e. to awake early in the morning

Ibtikaar, i.e. to go early to the Eid Gaah

To perform Fajr in the Masjid of the locality

To go to the Eid Gaah saying the Takbeer softly on Eid ul Fitr and to read audibly on Eid ul Adhaa is Sunnat

To return using another road
Sadaqatul Fitr is 1, 769 kg of wheat or is cash value

Janaazah

There are 6 conditions for Salaatul Janaazah:

The deceased should be a Muslim

The deceased should be pure

The deceased should be placed in front of the Imam

Most of the body or the entire body should be present

The one performing Salaat should not be mounted without an excuse

The deceased should be on the ground

Salaatul Janaazah is Fard alal Kifaaya

There are 5 obligatory actions in Salaatul Janaazah:

To stand

The first Takbeer Tahreema is to tie the hands and recite Thana’

The second Takbeer is to recite Durud Sharif

The third is to recite the Du’aa’
The fourth is to make Salaam thereafter

The total number of Takbeers is 4

There are 4 Sunnat actions in Salaatul Janaazah:

Whether the deceased is male or female, the Imam should stand in line with the chest

Thana’ should be recited after the first Takbeer

Durud upon Rasulullaah should be recited after the second Takbeer

Du’aa’ for the deceased should be recited after the third Takbeer

This is the Du’aa’ for Salaatul Janaazah

اللهم اغفر لحيتن وميتنا وشاهدننا وغانيتنا وصغيرنا وكيرنا وأثنا اللهم من أحييته منا فاحيه على الإسلام ومن توفيته منا فتوحه على اليمان

If the deceased is an immature boy, then recite this Du’aa’,

اللهم اجعله لنا فرطا واجعله لنا اجرا وذخرا واجعله لنا شافعا ومشفعا
If the deceased is an immature girl, then recite this Du’aa’,

اللهم اجعلها لنا فرطا واجعلها لنا اجرا وذخرا واجعلها لنا شافعا ومشفعة

There are 10 etiquettes of Sajdah Tilaawat

There are 14 verses in the Qur’aan, when recited or heared, Sajdah becomes compulsory

This Sajdah should be done in the state of Wudhu’

It is better that the Sajdah be done immediately after reciting the verse

It is also permissible if the person performs the Sajdah at a later time

If the verse is recited in Salaat, then one should make the Sajdah in that very Rak’at

It is best that a person stands facing the Qibla and goes into Sajdah

If he does the Sajdah from a sitting position, then too it will be permissible

After this Sajdah there is no Salaam

If one verse is recited repeatedly in the same place, then only one Sajdah becomes compulsory
If the place of recital changes, then a second Sajdah will become compulsory

Sajdah Tilaawat is compulsory

Vows

There are 9 rulings regarding vows:

It becomes compulsory to fulfil a vow after one has made it

If a person made a vow suspended upon a condition, then it will become compulsory to fulfil it once the condition is fulfilled

A vow is done to perform Salaat

A vow is done to fast

A vow is made to give wealth in charity

A vow is made to slaughter an animal

It is necessary to give the wealth of a vow to the poor to eat

A vow is done to perform Hajj and Umrah

That which is not worship, it is not done as vow
FASTING

There are 6 types of fast:

Obligatory, e.g. the fast of Ramadhaan
Compulsory, e.g. the fast of a vow
Sunnat, e.g. the fast of 10 Muharram
Optional, e.g. the fast of Sha’baan
Desirable, e.g. the fast of Dawood
Undesirable, e.g. the fast of the day of Eid

There are 3 obligatory actions of fasting:

To make the intention of fasting
To stay away from food and drink throughout the day
To stay away from intercourse throughout the day

5 things are desirable for a fasting person:

To partake of Sehri
To delay Sehri
To make quick in Iftaar, on a day that is not cloudy
To make Dhikr and Tilaawat in abundance
On account of 13 things, Kaffarah and Qadhaa’ become necessary:

Principle 1: if in Ramadhaan a person is keeping the fast of Ramadhaan and consumes something that is taken as food or medicine wilfully or he drinks something out of his own choice and there is no sickness or journey or he did it forgetfully or someone did not force him, then Qadhaa’ and Kaffaarah will become compulsory.

Principle 2: in the month of Ramdhaan if a person is keeping the fast of Ramadhaan and he wilfully has intercourse without anyone forcing him, then Qadhaa’ and Kaffaarah will become compulsory

In the following 13 cases Qadhaa’ and Kaffaarah will become compulsory:

If he eats knowingly, Qadhaa’ and Kaffaarah will become compulsory

If he knowingly takes medication or drinks water or liquor, then Qadhaa’ and Kaffaarah will become compulsory

If he knowingly has intercourse, Qadhaa’ and Kaffaarah will become compulsory

Swallowing a raindrop and it enters the throat
A person eats raw meat or fat, if it had worms, gone bad

By eating Paan -beetle leaf- Qadhaa’ and Kaffaarah will become compulsory

By eating wheat Qadhaa’ and Kaffaarah will become compulsory

Chewing it and took it out. The Qadhaa’ and Kaffaarah will not apply if it was chewed and dissolved

Swallowing a grain of wheat

Eating chewing gum will make Qadhaa’ and Kaffaarah compulsory

If a person swallows his wife’s saliva Qadhaa’ and Kaffaarah will become compulsory

If a person eats after cupping then Qadhaa’ and Kaffaarah will become compulsory

If a woman is happy when made to have intercourse, then Qadhaa’ and Kaffaarah will be compulsory upon her

48 things make Qadhaa’ necessary, not Kaffarah:
Principle 1: the fast will break by eating those things that are not consumed as food or medicine, but Qadhaa’ will become compulsory, not Kaffaarah

Principle 2: if a person consumes food or medicine on account of sickness or by someone forcing him or on journey or he eats mistakenly, the fast will break. There will be Qadhaa’ no Kaffaarah

Principle 3: food or medicine reached the stomach from another path besides the throat or it reached the brain. The fast will break but Kaffaarah will not be compulsory

Principle 4: a person remembered his fast and put water in his mouth and it mistakenly went down the throat. This is referred to as a mistake. Qadhaa’ becomes compulsory

Principle 5: a person did not remember fasting. He wilfully ate to his fill. This is forgetfulness. The fast does not break.

In the following 48 cases only Qadhaa’ will be compulsory, not Kaffaarah:

There was danger of falling ill, so he ate. There will be Qadhaa’ no Kaffaarah

A person fell ill so he ate or drank water. There will be Qadhaa’ no Kaffaarah
Someone forced a person to eat. There will be Qadhaa’ no Kaffaarah

There was danger of falling ill. He therefore drank water or medicine. There will be Qadhaa’ no Kaffaarah

Someone forced him so he drank water or medicine. There will be Qadhaa’ no Kaffaarah

If a fasting person eats raw rice there will be Qadhaa’ no Kaffaarah

If a person eats flour that was kneaded or dry flour there will be Qadhaa’ no Kaffaarah

If a person ate a lot of salt at once there will be Qadhaa’ no Kaffaarah

If a person ate sand there will be Qadhaa’ no Kaffaarah

If a person eats a pit that is not normally eaten there will be Qadhaa’ no Kaffaarah

If a person smokes a cigarette-unintentionally- there will be Qadhaa’ no Kaffaarah-if intentionally then Kaffaarah also

If a person smokes tobacco-unintentionally- there will be Qadhaa’ no Kaffaarah-if intentionally then Kaffaarah also

Compulsory, in the case where a person took a vow

Sunnat Kifaayah Mu’akkadah, the last 10 days of Ramadhaan

Desirable, which is besides the above

ZAKAAT

Zakaat is obligatory upon 7 types of people:

If a person has his basic needs fulfilled and after paying his debts, if he owns 52, 5 Tola of silver then Zakaat becomes obligatory upon him

If a person owns 7, 5 Tola of gold, then Zakaat will be obligatory upon him

If a person owns the value of 7, 5 Tola gold in pounds, dollars or rupees etc.

If a person owns trading stock to the value of 7, 5 Tola gold, then Zakaat is obligatory upon him

If a person bought a house for trade, then Zakaat will be obligatory

If a person bought a plot of land for trade, then Zakaat will be obligatory
If a person bought books or anything else for trade, then Zakaat will be obligatory.

In terms of percentage, 2.5% is obligatory.

1 Tola is 11,664 grams.

Therefore, if you multiply 7.5 Tola by 11,664, the result is 87,48 grams of gold.

Multiply 52.5 Tola of silver by 11,664, the result will be 612,36 grams of silver upon which 2.5% Zakaat is obligatory.

Zakaat is not obligatory upon 10 types of people:

A poor person does not have to give Zakaat.

Such a person who is in debt and all his wealth is used in the debt, then Zakaat will not be obligatory [A long term debt does not prevent Zakaat from becoming obligatory. For example, a person took a loan of 100000 to be paid over 25 years. He has to pay 10000 each time and his income is 12000 yearly. He will have to give Zakaat on the 2000 because every year 10000 will be used up in his basic needs]

A child does not have to give Zakaat.

A mad person does not have to give Zakaat.
The tools used to earn, e.g. sewing machine, the car used as a taxi etc

If an entire year did not pass over the wealth, there will be no Zakaat on it

If a person’s wealth is less than Nisaab, i.e. less than 52, 5 Tola of silver

If a person bought a house to rent there will be no Zakaat

There is no Zakaat on a plot that a person bought to build his house

There is no Zakaat for one’s books or something bought for personal use

There are 8 types of people who could be given Zakaat:

Fuqaraa’ – those who have a little wealth

Masaakeen – those who have nothing at all

‘Aamileen – those whose work it is to collect Zakaat

Mu’allafatul Quloob – those in whom there is hope that they will accept Islaam or they are weak in Islaam-this is abrogated

Riqaab – freeing a slave by giving him wealth to pay off his price
Gharimeen – a person in debt on account of some responsibility

Fi Sabeelillaah – helping a person in Jihaad with Zakaat

Ibn us Sabeel – a traveller, he has wealth at home but he has no wealth on journey

It is necessary that the above mentioned people are made the owners of the Zakaat, then the Zakaat will be done

10 types of people cannot be given Zakaat:

A disbeliever

A wealthy person who possesses Nisaab

A person owns something and the value of it equals Nisaab

The child of a wealthy person

The parents and grandparents going upwards cannot be given Zakaat by his son

The progeny (sons, daughters, grandsons, granddaughters) cannot be given

One’s wife

For the shroud of a deceased

For fulfilment of the debt incurred by a deceased
The poor inheritors of a person can be given and they fulfil the debt, then there is no problem.

If a person gives Zakaat to a person thinking that he is deserving, then the opposite becomes apparent, the Zakaat will be valid on condition that he found out and gave.

This is the sequence of giving Zakaat:

Ones close family should be given Zakaat first, like brother, sister, uncle etc.

Then one’s neighbour

Then the people of the locality

Then those of the same profession

Then those of one’s city

Then those of another city

It is not necessary to inform the recipient that this is Zakaat

If both are not possible, then with water
If this is not possible, then one should clean with a lump of sand

If the place that has become impure is less than an inch, then the lump of sand will also suffice

If the place that has become impure is less than an inch, then tissue paper will also suffice

If the place that has become impure is more than an inch, then it is necessary to wash with water

It is desirable to take the right foot out of the toilet first

When coming out of the toilet, recite this Du‘aa’ (غفرانك الحمد لله الذي اذهب عنى الإداة وعافاني)

18 etiquettes of Ghusl:

If there is some impurity, it should be washed first-wash the hands up to the wrists then the private pars if there is any impurity there then any where there is impurity

Make Wudhu’ before Ghusl

Wash the hands up to the wrists

Rinse the mouth

Put water into the nose

Wash the face
Wash the hands including the elbows

Make Masah of the head

Wash the feet after Ghusl

Pour water over the body thrice

Put water wherever it could be made to reach

It is best that the private areas are not uncovered

If the private areas are open, one should not face the Qibla

Pour water over the body thrice

Do not recite any Du’aa’ in the bathroom

There is a utensil in which water is falling in from the tap and used water is also falling in, then too the water will be pure

If one has conviction that impure water has fallen into the utensil, then the water of the utensil is impure. It should be thrown away and new water taken and the Ghusl began

If soap fell into the water it is pure because soap is pure
Optional Salaat

There are 4 important rulings in Taraweeh Salaat:

Taraweeh Salaat is 20 Rak’ats. This is proven from the Hadith

This is performed in units of 2-after every 2 rakaats to make salaam

It is Sunnat to sit a little while after every 4 Rak’ats

It is Sunnat to complete the entire Qur’aan during Ramadhaan

For men to make salaat with Jamaat is sunnat

There are 4 important rulings in Tahiyyatul Wudhu:

The 2 Rak’ats performed after Wudhu’ is called Tahiyyatul Wudhu’

Tahiyyatul Wudhu’ is Nafl-sunnat e ghair mukkaidha
If one performed Tahiyyatul Masjid, then Tahiyyatul Wudhu’ will be included in it

One should not perform Tahiyyatul Wudhu’ in the undesirable time

There are 4 important rulings in Tahiyyatul Masjid:

The 2 Rak’ats performed when entering the Masjid is called Tahiyyatul Masjid

It is Nafl to perform Tahiyyatul Masjid

If one performs any other Sunnat, obligatory or compulsory Salaat, then Tahiyyatul Masjid will be done

One should not perform Tahiyyatul Masjid in the undesirable time

There are 6 important rulings in Ishraaq Salaat:

2 Rak’ats performed after sunrise is called Ishraaq

Ishraaq Salaat is Nafl-sunnat e ghair mukkhaidha

This Salaat can be performed as 2 Rak’ats, or as 4 Rak’ats. It is better that 4 are performed
Ishraaq time lasts until breakfast time, about 9 o clock

Do not perform Ishraaq in the undesirable time

Perform Ishraaq 10 minutes after sunrise

There are 7 important rulings in Chaasht Salaat:

The meaning of Chaasht is breakfast

Perform 2 Rak’at at breakfast time, this is Chaasht Salaat

The time of Chaasht lasts from 9 o clock to just before Zawaal

Chaasht Salaat is Nafl-sunnat e ghair mukkaidha

One can perform 2 Rak’ats or 4 Rak’ats of Chaasht

It is better to perform 4

Do not perform Chaasht in the undesirable time

Salaatul Istikhaara:

If some important task is at hand, then perform Istikhaara. Istikhaara is not made regarding that which is obligatory or compulsory on a person, but there is scope, e.g. Hajj is obligatory upon you. There is no Istikhaara regarding this. However, one has done Hajj and now he wants to perform optional Hajj. So he should make Istikhaara for this that should I or should I not do it. Alternatively, one should make Istikhaara for marriage or other worldly affairs.

One should not ask others to make Istikhaara. One should do it oneself. Others will do wrong for you and sometimes they will take money and tell you wrong and upside down things.

The method of Istikhaara is that one should perform 2 Rak’at of Salaat and in Tashahhud, after Du’aa’, one should read the Istikhaara Du’aa’. If one does not know it, then after Salaam one should read it looking inside. One should make Du’aa’ that Allaah should make the decision of goodness in it. Whatever is goodness for the person.

It will be shown/indicated in a dream

The heart will be inclined to the work/task

Or hatred for the work will be put into the heart

If the heart does not incline towards something on the first day, then do Istikhaara for 7 days. Allaah willing, within 7 days, the days will be inclined in some way. If this does not happen, then repeat the 7 day Istikhaara.

This is the Du’aa’ of Istikhaara,
Awwaabeen Salaat:

After the Sunnats of Maghrib, 6 Rak’ats of optional Salaat are performed. This is called Awwaabeen Salaat ut Tasbeeh:

Every week or once a month or at least once a year one should perform Salaat ut Tasbeeh. One can perform it as 2 Rak’at or 4 Rak’at. The total number of Tasbeeh in the 4 Rak’at is 300 and in the 2 Rak’at it is 150. In 1 Rak’at 75 Tasbeeh is recited. There is no proper reference for 2 rakaats. It is 4 rakaats which can be read with 1 salaam or 2 salaam, both permissible, with 1 salaam best.

Shaami-vol 2 p 26

The sequence of Tasbeeh is:

15 Tasbeeh after Tahreemah

10 Tasbeeh after reciting the Surah
10 Tasbeeh in Ruku’
10 Tasbeeh after getting up from Ruku’
10 Tasbeeh in the first Sajdah
10 Tasbeeh when lifting the head from the first Sajdah
10 Tasbeeh in the second Sajdah
The total in 1 Rak’at is 75.

The Tasbeeh is (سُبُحَانَ اللَّهِ وَالْحَمْدُ لَلَّهِ وَلَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا الَّلَّهُ وَاللَّهُ أَكْبَرَ)

Tahajjud:

Tahajjud Salaat is Sunnat and carries great reward

In Salaat ut Tahajjud Du’aa’s are accepted

After Esha’, optional Salaat performed is Tahajjud

The time for Tahajjud is after Esha’ until true dawn

It is better that Tahajjud is performed in the latter part of the night

If no one could wake up and Tahajjud was performed after Esha’, then one will get the reward of Tahajjud

One can perform 4 Rak’ats or 8 Rak’ats of Tahajjud
It is better to perform 8 Rak’ats

The method of Nikaah

2 sane, mature, Muslim males should be witness. Alternatively, 1 man and 2 women should be witness. They should present the proposal and acceptance before the witnesses. The Nikaah will be done, even if it is not registered. Those people who are involved in adultery and cannot leave it should at least marry the woman so they could be saved from the sin of adultery. First the Khutbah should be recited, then the proposal and acceptance. After this, Du’aa’ for love between them should be made.

The Khutbah of Nikaah

الحمد لله نحمده ونستعينه تستغفره وتؤمن به وتتوكل عليه ونعوذ بالله من شرور انفسنا ومن سيئات اعمالنا من يهده الله فلا مصل له ومن يضله فلا هادي له ونشهد ان لا له الا الله وحده لا شريك له ونشهد ان محمدًا عبده ورسوله ارسله بالحق بشيراً ونبياً من يطيع الله ورسوله فقد رشده ومن بعضهم فانه لا يضير ال nal نفسه ولا يضر الله شئناً يا ايها الذين آمنوا اتقوا الله حق تقاته ولا تموتون الا واتم مسلمون يا ايها الناس اتقوا ربكم الذي خلقكم من نفس واحدة وخلق منها زوجها ويث منهما رجالاً كثيراً ونساء وتاتقوا الله الذي تسألون به والرحام ان الله كان عليكم رقيباً يا ايها الذين آمنوا اتقوا
Mahr Faatimi:

Mahr Faatimi is 500 silver Dirhams.

1530, 90 grams of silver is Mahr Fatimi.

One Dirham of silver is 3, 061 grams.

Multiply 500 by 3, 061 and you will get 1530, 90 grams – Mahr Fatimi

In terms of Tola, it is 131, 25 Tola of silver – Mahr Fatimi

A silver Dirham is 0, 262 Tola of silver

Multiply 500 by 0, 262 and you will get 131, 25 Tola of silver – Mahr Fatimi

1 Tola of silver is 11, 664 grams
Today, 10 grams is taken as 1 Tola

According to this, 1530, 90 grams equals 153, 09 Tola of silver

For Mahr, one should give 1530, 90 grams of silver or at the time of Nikah the value of it should be stipulated

About the Book

Thamratul Fiqh comprises of all the rulings of Salaat, Fasting, Zakaat, Hajj and Nikaah laid out simply in sections. The sections are obligatory actions, compulsory actions, Sunnat actions, desirable actions and undesirable actions of each of the fundamental duties in Islaam. All the rulings have been adapted from the classical Hanafi text, ‘Nur ul Idah’, studied in many countries. The rulings are numbered and the book is designed to make it easier for younger children to memorise them.

It also serves as an aid to the Imam of a Masjid to teach the basic rulings of Salaat, Fasting, Zakaat and Hajj to the Musallis.

Any Hanafi can easily refer to it for his day to day questions. It will prove to be a very handy book to any Hanafi.

It has 1025 easy simple laws especially designed for children. It is useful handy book for adults also. It will serve as study guide for the going out on long journeys such as Hajj or Jamaat work or those in prisons.
